Combinatory Cinema

Films and interactive narratives by Scott Rettberg, Roderick Coover and collaborators.

Three Rails Live: a contemporary story of personal and environmental dissolution.

Toxi•City: a fiction of life in the toxic Delaware River Estuary after a series of devastating hurricanes mixed with the true stories of those who perished during Hurricane Sandy.

Hearts and Minds: The Interrogations Project: an immersive narrative based on interviews of American soldiers who participated in the torture of detainees in Iraq during the early 2000s.

The Electronic Literature Reading Series is produced by the Bergen Electronic Literature Research Group and Bergen Public Library
